Chapter 1: Contemplating the switch to ArcGIS Pro 1
Background 1
System requirements 3
Licensing 3
Capabilities of ArcGIS Pro 4
When should I switch? 5
Time to explore 7
Objective 1.1: Downloading the data for these exercises 7
Objective 1.2: Starting ArcGIS Pro, signing in, creating a project, and exploring the interface . . 9
Objective 1.3: Accessing maps and data from ArcGIS Online 12
Objective 1.4: Arranging the windows and panes 14
Objective 1.5: Accessing ArcGIS Pro Help 15
Objective 1.6: Importing a map document 17

Chapter 2: Unpacking the UI 19
Background 19
The ribbon and tabs 19
Panes 20
Views 21
Time to explore 22
Objective 2.1: Getting familiar with the Contents pane 22
Objective 2.2: Learning to work with objects and tabs 24
Objective 2.3: Exploring the Catalog pane 25

Chapter 3: The project 29
Background 29
What is a project? 29
Items stored in a project 30
Paths in projects 32
Renaming projects 32

Time to explore 33
Objective 3.1: Exploring the elements of a project 33
Objective 3.2: Accessing properties of projects, maps, and other items 35

Chapter 4: Navigating and exploring maps 37
Background 37
Exploring maps 37
2D and 3D navigation 38
Time to explore 39
Objective 4.1: Learning to use the Map tools 39
Objective 4.2: Exploring 3D scenes and linking views 43

Chapter 5: Symbolizing maps 47
Background 47
Accessing the symbol settings for layers 47
Accessing the labeling properties 48
Symbolizing rasters 50
Time to explore 52
Objective 5.1: Modifying single symbols 52
Objective 5.2: Creating maps from attributes 55
Objective 5.3: Creating labels 58
Objective 5.4: Managing labels 60
Objective 5.5: Symbolizing rasters 63

Chapter 6: Geoprocessing 67
Background 67
What's different 67
Analysis buttons and tools 69
Tool licensing 69
Time to explore 70
Objective 6.1: Getting familiar with the geoprocessing interface 70
Objective 6.2: Performing interactive selections 72
Objective 6.3: Performing selections based on attributes 74
Objective 6.4: Performing selections based on location 76
Objective 6.5: Practicing geoprocessing 77

Chapter 7: Tables 81
Background 81
General table characteristics 81
Joining and relating tables 82

Making charts 85
Time to explore 86
Objective 7.1: Managing table views 86
Objective 7.2: Creating and managing properties of a chart 88
Objective 7.3: Calculating statistics for tables 90
Objective 7.4: Calculating and editing in tables 92

Chapter 8: Layouts 95
Background 95
Layouts and map frames 95
Layout editing procedures 96
Importing map documents and templates 98
Time to explore 98
Objective 8.1: Creating the maps for the layout 99
Objective 8.2: Setting up a layout page with map frames 100
Objective 8.3: Setting the map frame extent and scale 102
Objective 8.4: Formatting the map frame 103
Objective 8.5: Creating and formatting map elements 105
Objective 8.6: Fine-tuning the legend 107
Objective 8.7: Accessing and copying layouts 109

Chapter 9: Managing data 111
Background 111
Data models 111
Managing the geodatabase schema 112
Creating domains 114
Managing data from diverse sources 115
Project longevity 116
Managing shared data for work groups 117
Time to explore 118
Objective 9.1: Creating a project and exporting data to it 118
Objective 9.2: Creating feature classes 120
Objective 9.3: Creating and managing metadata 122
Objective 9.4: Creating fields and domains 124
Objective 9.5: Modifying the table schema 126
Objective 9.6: Sharing data using ArcGIS Online 128

Chapter 10: Editing 131
Background 131
Basic editing functions 131

Creating features 132
Modifying existing features 134
Creating and editing annotation 136
Time to explore 136
Objective 10.1: Understanding the editing tools in ArcGIS Pro 136
Objective 10.2: Creating points 138
Objective 10.3: Creating lines 140
Objective 10.4: Creating polygons 142
Objective 10.5: Modifying existing features 144
Objective 10.6: Creating an annotation feature class 147
Objective 10.7: Editing annotation 149
Objective 10.8: Creating annotation features 150

Chapter 11: Moving forward 153
