

CONTENTS

Foreword xiii

Preface xix

PRISCILLA MBAMA ABASI 3

Making maps and flying drones to save lives

ARIANNA ARMELLI 8

Taking a business risk to help others avoid risk

MARYGRACE BALINOS 16

From imagined cities to real solutions

FIONA BECKER 22

Blending the beauty of science and art

MAGGIE CAWLEY 33

Traveling the open road for open data

HANAN DARWISHE 43

Reaching for the stars with her feet on the ground

ELENA FIELD 48

Charting the unknown in the Antarctic

GABI FLEURY 54

Forging a path to coexistence with wildlife

AFRICA FLORES-ANDERSON 60

Fighting for a sustainable world, from Guatemala to the Himalayas

MIRIAM GONZÁLEZ 65

Democratizing access to geospatial data

HEALY HAMILTON 71

Answering life's call to help save the diversity of life

KATHARINE HAYHOE 78

Spreading the word on climate change—and action

JACQUE LARRAINZAR 85

Mapping a city's path to racial equity

ANNITA LUCCHESI 90

Carving out space for Indigenous mapping

SAVANNA NAGORSKI & MELISSA K. SCHUTTEN 96

Supporting urban development and tribal communities

TRISALYN NELSON 109

Turning geography into practical solutions

LINDA OCHWADA 114

Leading the way on geospatial AI and innovation in Africa

ZARITH PINEDA 120

Generating empathy through equitable design

MAYA QUIÑONES 126

Bringing forestry data to life in the Caribbean

ALICE RATHJEN 133

Going on a spiritual journey to map genomes

MARIA-ALICIA SERRANO 139

Bridging communities using insights from GIS

ALINA SHEMETOVA 145

Energizing GIS from a legacy of science

ARIELLE SIMMONS-STEFFEN 153

Protecting watersheds for generations to come

LAUREN SINCLAIR 162

Empowering kids using GIS

REGAN SMYTH 170

Seeing the big picture and keeping it real

PATRICIA SOLIS 179

Serving as an ambassador for people, places, and peace

NAVYA TRIPATHI 189

Pioneering the future of GIS

KALPANA VISWANATH 194

Pinning her business on the safety of cities

JULIA WAGEMANN 199

Expanding the network of female leaders in GIS

FAUSTINE WILLIAMS 205

Improving health outcomes for underserved populations

About the Esri Press team 211

KEY

The individuals profiled in this book work in a variety of fields. Use this key and the sunburst icon beside each name to learn about that person's top three fields.

Science and Research

Education and the Arts

Business and Entrepreneurship

Conservation and the Environment

Social Justice

Humanitarianism

On the next page, view this dataset sorted by primary field.