

Contents

Foreword ix

Preface xi

Catherine Ball Rising high with ‘drones for good’ 2

Ranu Basu Seeking human interconnectedness on a global scale 10

Deirdre Bishop Keeping track of the census 18

Paulette Brown-Hinds Bringing community awareness to life 26

Molly Burhans Turning landownership into land stewardship 34

Kate Chapman Open to helping others benefit from technology 46

Wan-Hwa Cheng Green sea turtles the apple of her eye 52

Sylvia A. Earle Her Deepness works to save the ocean 62

Shoreh Elhami A life of service and volunteerism to the greater community 72

Karen E. Firehock Connecting people to green infrastructure 78

Kass Green Providing the big picture on natural resources 90

Kristen Kurland The heart of a giving teacher 98

- Nancy La Vigne Using quantitative research to tip the scales of justice 110
- Wangari Maathai The power of one little hummingbird 118
- Holley Moyes Archaeologist explores Maya ritual caves 130
- Natalia Ocampo-Peñuela On the wings of conservation ecology 144
- Miriam Olivares Mentoring from Mexico to Yale 156
- Breece Robertson Protecting what she holds dear 162
- Elena Shevchenko Forging an international bond in tense times 170
- Mary Spence A cartographer worthy of queen's honors 180
- Kathryn D. Sullivan Meeting the challenge, from NASA to NOAA—and beyond 192
- Nancy Tosta Setting standards and seeking consensus 200
- Madison Vorva Taking her seat at the table 206

Acknowledgments 217