

Esri Environmental and Natural Resources eBrief

Your source for GIS news, trends, and technology

Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation Streamlines Watershed Inspections

The department reduced routine inspection times by half with ArcGIS Survey123 feature reports.

Watch the Video

Urban Parks Play a Big Role in Curbing Inequity and Climate Impacts

The Trust for Public Land provides location intelligence and analyzes social and environmental factors to make the case for parks and open space for people who need them most.

See More

How a Young Activist Is Helping Pope Francis Battle Climate Change

Molly Burhans wants the Catholic Church to put its assets—which include farms, forests, oil wells, and millions of acres of land—to better use. But, first, she has to map them.

Explore Now

New Podcast from Harvard School of Public Policy

Each episode of Data-Smart City Pod will highlight a government that has achieved public policy success with GIS.

Listen Now →

Explore the US Census of Agriculture

A portion of the latest agriculture census is now available in ArcGIS Living Atlas of the World. You can explore the nine layers available for major agriculture products, livestock, and equipment, all with some related layers, such as the Department of Agriculture's (USDA) CropScape and Soil Survey Geograph Database.

Read More →

How an Atlas of San Francisco Bay Is Helping Deal with Sea Level Rise

The San Francisco Estuary Institute has deployed GIS for much of its 40-year history to build a knowledge base about natural processes and nature-based solutions to create a resilient shoreline.

See More→

Is your information up-to-date?

Update Your Info

Explore Esri's New Environmental & Natural Resources Community Page Made Just for You

Esri.com | Privacy | Contact Us

Copyright © 2021 Esri. All rights reserved.

Esri, 380 New York Street, Redlands, CA 92373, USA.

