

Esri State and Local Government eBrief

SANDAG Proposes Five Big Moves to Forever Change Transportation in the San Diego Region

The San Diego Association of Governments (SANDAG) is using GIS to understand community characteristics, lifestyles, and travel patterns to provide a faster, fairer, and cleaner transportation system for generations to come.

Read More

Share:

Property Valuation and the Analytics Grounding It

Though the thought process on how to properly value property might differ from community to community, ArcGIS Insights helps assessors conduct sales ratio studies, neighborhood realignment, and other assessment-related analyses with ease.

Learn More

---

To Address Racial Inequity, Many Leaders Are Starting with a Map

Four best practices are emerging where GIS is being used to map racial inequities in a way that promotes actions to mitigate them.

Read Now

---

Harvard School of Public Policy Podcast: Episode 2

Hear the Racial Equity Anchor Collaborative discuss the value of data-driven advocacy, how mapping can improve census response rates, and how cooperative efforts can increase racial equity on local and national scales.

Listen Now →

Take a Tour of Esri Maps for Public Policy

In five short videos, you'll get a look at a great public policy tool that you might not be using and how you can leverage the data in your work, today.

Take the Tour→

---

New Book Series Focuses on Taking Your GIS Implementation to the Next Level

Esri Press released a book series called Applying GIS, including the newest title Building a Smarter Community, to outline easy steps to advance your use of GIS. Oh, and did we mention the books are pocket-sized?

See More→

Is your information up-to-date?

Update Your Info

Esri.com | Privacy | Contact Us

Copyright © 2021 Esri. All rights reserved.

Esri, 380 New York Street, Redlands, CA 92373, USA.

