

Esri Health and Human Services eBrief

Public Health Preparedness: What Lessons Emerged and What Changes Should Be Implemented

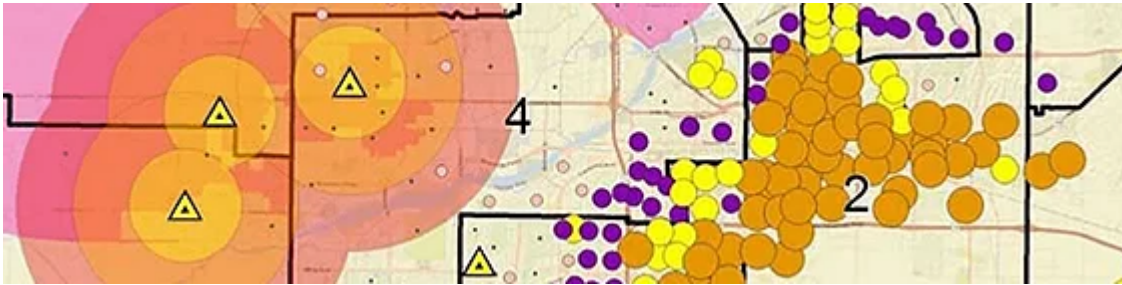

Looking back on the new datasets, terms, and solutions that arose during COVID-19 will carry the public health preparedness profession into the future.

Read More

Vaccine Coverage Analysis Solution Released

The Vaccine Coverage Analysis delivers a set of capabilities that help health and human services agencies identify priority and underserved populations, locate optimal vaccination sites, and share vaccine coverage gaps with internal and external stakeholders.

Learn More

To Address Racial Inequity, Many Leaders Are Starting with a Map

Four best practices are emerging where GIS is being used to map racial inequities in a way that promotes actions to mitigate them.

Read More

Harvard School of Public Policy Podcast: Episode 2

Hear the Racial Equity Anchor Collaborative discuss the value of data-driven advocacy, how mapping can improve census response rates, and how cooperative efforts can increase racial equity on local and national scales.

Listen Now →

Small Suburb Creates Innovative COVID-19 Information Hub

ArcGIS Hub helps the City of Melrose, Massachusetts, share data and resources with residents on COVID-19 cases, testing sites in the city, and more.

Read More →

New Book Series Focuses on Taking Your GIS Implementation to the Next Level

Esri Press released a book series called Applying GIS, including the newest title Building a Smarter Community, to outline easy steps to advance your use of GIS. Oh, and did we mention the books are pocket-sized?

See More→

Is your information up-to-date?

Update Your Info

Esri.com | Privacy | Contact Us

Copyright © 2021 Esri. All rights reserved.

Esri, 380 New York Street, Redlands, CA 92373, USA.

