

Esri Health and Human Services eBrief

Equity at the Forefront of the 2023 CIO Summit

Esri's Public Sector CIO Summit hosted equity leaders in an in-person workshop that discussed how GIS technology can be leveraged to address equity-related challenges.

Read More

Pioneering Modern Approaches to Homelessness

Emily Vaughn Henry, deputy CIO for Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority (LAHSA), showcases their work to conduct the largest-scale annual homeless point-in-time count at the 2023 Esri Public Sector CIO Summit.

Watch Presentation →

Understanding Federal Funding Opportunities

The National Association of Counties (NACo) shares an update and insight into the patterns and trends it is seeing with federal funding.

Learn More

Enhance Environmental Health with GIS

Monitor with Ease by Leveraging GIS Technology

GIS allows your organization to incorporate a real-time automated monitoring system that enables you to manage and track data for timely data-driven interventions and critical decision-making all in one system.

Learn More →

The Urban Heat Paradox and the Power of GIS: A National Heat Awareness Day Special

GIS technology can help alleviate the negative impacts of climate change and urban heat. Learn how in this National Heat Awareness Day Special blog.

Read More →

LAST CHANCE TO REGISTER

UC 2023

July 10-14, 2023 | San Diego, CA

Privacy | Contact Us | About Us

Copyright ©2023 Esri. All rights reserved.

Esri, 380 New York Street, Redlands, CA 92373, USA.

