

Esri Health and Human Services eBrief

ArcGIS AllSource: Revealing Opioid Diversion

Identifying fraudulent health-care workers or persons exploiting the health-care system through opioid diversion can seem unmanageable. However, GIS technology allows auditors to identify outliers indicating possible fraudulent activities.

Learn More

Share:

Eliminating Trachoma with the Help of GIS Technology

Sightsavers, an international nonprofit organization, leverages GIS technology to prevent sight loss in some of the most economically disadvantaged parts of the world.

Read More

Report: Best Practices to Meet Point-in-Time Count Deadlines

Many organizations have embraced GIS as a tool to help address homelessness. This report outlines the best practices and proven techniques to help organizations prepare for, conduct, and report their point-in-time (PIT) count.

Get Report

More News in Health and Human Services

LA's New Chief Heat Officer Expands Cooling Centers Based on Equity Maps

The City of Los Angeles implements an interactive app and web map displaying over 200 cooling centers and spots for refuge from extreme heat.

Learn More

Get More out of Business Analyst Infographics and Dashboards

Many ArcGIS Business Analyst users are familiar with the basics of sharing infographics in dashboards. But there is much more you can do within Business Analyst.

Read More

Adopting a Nonprofit Builds Stronger Communities (and Just Got Easier)

Esri has launched a $1 million grant initiative for the advancement of small nonprofit organizations. Check out this blog to learn how you can empower a nonprofit by becoming a GIS advocate and who is eligible to apply.

Learn More

You're Invited—Immerse Yourself in Our Unique Storytelling Conference

The 21st Esri Health and Human Services GIS Conference will be taking place in the Windy City next year. Register today to hear from subject matter experts, meet with Esri partners, and connect with peers who are leveraging GIS to build health communities.

Learn More

Explore the Latest Public Policy Resources

School Districts and Socioeconomic Information Sidebar Application

This application explores school district socioeconomic characteristics throughout the United States, like the number of public and private schools, school enrollment figures, disconnected youth within a district, children living below the poverty level, and children with no internet at home.

Visit the Application

Inflation Is Coming. What's a GIS Analyst to Do?

Understand inflation when mapping median household income, home value, and other attributes with monetary values.

Learn More

Esri Health & Human Services GIS Conference

May 2-3, 2023 | Chicago, IL

Privacy | Contact Us | About Us

Copyright © 2022 Esri. All rights reserved.

Esri, 380 New York Street, Redlands, CA 92373, USA.

