

Esri State & Local Brief

A brief collection of curated content for public works professionals

Water Outage Map Gives Seattle Residents and Staff Crucial Information

Seattle centralizes water shutdown workflows around a shared map, improving communication between utility teams, and delivers a water outage map to better inform residents.

Read More

Providing Green Infrastructure Updates to Residents

The City of Hobart Sanitary & Stormwater District uses ArcGIS StoryMaps to inform residents of recent projects around the community that are protecting the local environment.

View StoryMap

To Address Racial Inequity, Many Leaders Are Starting with a Map

Four best practices are emerging where GIS is being used to map racial inequities in a way that promotes actions to mitigate them.

Read Now

Harvard School of Public Policy Podcast: Episode 2

Hear the Racial Equity Anchor Collaborative discuss the value of data-driven advocacy, how mapping can improve census response rates, and how cooperative efforts can increase racial equity on local and national scales.

Listen Now →

Airspace Link Incorporates Location Intelligence into Drone Offering

Detroit's Airspace Link, a provider of federal, state, and local government drone flight planning, authorization, and management solutions, has partnered with Esri to integrate a flight planner designed to inform pilots of conditions before drone takeoff.

Read More →

New Book Series Focuses on Taking Your GIS Implementation to the Next Level

Esri Press released a book series called Applying GIS, including the newest title Building a Smarter Community, to outline easy steps to advance your use of GIS. Oh, and did we mention the books are pocket-sized?

See More→

Is your information up-to-date?

Update Your Info

Esri.com | Privacy | Contact Us

Copyright © 2021 Esri. All rights reserved.

Esri, 380 New York Street, Redlands, CA 92373, USA.

