Hi,

This month we are excited to share with you the second WhereNext Webcast called “Building an Analytics Team to Support Strategy”. We ask analytics leaders at TD Bank and Grange Insurance what it takes to create a successful practice. Be sure to register for the live viewing on March 23rd!

You can also hear Jack Dangermond and Jonathan Rosenthal, CEO of Saybrook Management, discuss how GIS – and spatial data – will bring a new level of visibility and efficiency during a fireside chat, as part of FreightWaves’ Global Supply Chain Week (GSCW) virtual event.

Plus, our featured podcast investigates how geospatial technology and predictive analytics have enabled commercial businesses to fortify themselves against disruptions.
